

I want the FCC to continue to support Indiana's "No Call List" as it exists today. My phone is for my use and the use of those who I have invited to call me and my family. My phone is NOT a mechanism for marketing and other abuses made by companies contacting me uninvited.